Dear City of Ann Arbor Standard Specification Book User:

As you may know, the current version of the City's Public Services Standard Specifications (Orange Book) is available in PDF format on the city's website through the Project Management webpage. We are in the process of making revisions to our Standard Specifications, which will be posted on this webpage as they are available. To provide you with the timeliest updates, you now have the option of subscribing to the Standard Specifications webpage to receive email notification when changes have been made. Updates to the Standard Specifications will not be mailed.

To access and/or subscribe to the Standard Specifications webpage, follow these steps:

1. Go to www.a2gov.org/standardspecifications
2. The upper right of the screen has a link to "Sign up for Standard Specification e-mail updates." A new window will open to subscribe to updates, if desired.

Please share this letter with others in your company that may find this information useful.

Very truly yours,
